

STUDY (continued)

- d. Who will be judged? (Romans 14:7-13, 2 Corinthians 5:10)
 - e. What will they be judged on? (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, John 12:46-48, 1 Corinthians 4:5)
 - f. What can be expected of the judgment? (1 Corinthians 3:11-15, Luke 13:23-30, Matthew 16:27)
 - g. Why do we have to be judged at all? (Romans 3:23, 6:23)
 - h. When will the judgment happen (John 12:31, Revelation 20:4-15)
 - i. Aren't Christians exempt from judging? (John 3:18, John 5:24, Heb 10:26-31, Psalm 32:5, 1 John 1:9, Matthew 5:17)
 - j. Does God want people to judge people to death? (Numbers 14:18, Leviticus 24:18-28, Ezekiel 33:11, John 3:17, 2 Peter 3:9)
2. Is there a difference in the eternal judgment for:
- a. Those who are saved?
 - b. Those who are not saved?
 - c. Angels who were kicked out of the Kingdom of God (2 Peter 2:4, Jude 1:6)?
3. How does eternal judgment differ from the judgment spoken of in 1 Peter 4:14-19?

IN YOUR OWN WORDS

Pray that the Holy Spirit will help you prepare yourself and everyone who will listen for the eternal judgment.

Affirmation: I will submit to the Lord's guidance for my eternal destiny.